4-H Program Manager
Home Office in Ottawa, KS

POSITION DESCRIPTION

K-State Research and Extension Frontier District serves Anderson, Franklin, and Osage Counties in Eastern Kansas. The extension unit has offices in Garnett, Lyndon, and Ottawa. The Frontier District Board provides the salary and benefits for this full-time position. The position is supervised by the Frontier District Director and the District 4-H Youth Development Agent with support provided by the District Extension Agents.

DESCRIPTION
The 4-H Program Manager in consultation with the Frontier District 4-H Youth Development Agent and in coordination with the other district 4-H Program Managers, will be responsible for coordinating and managing the organization and functioning of the 4-H youth development program in the Frontier District.

RESPONSIBILITIES
- Present a positive, professional, and inviting impression of the Frontier District and K-State Research and Extension while interacting with the public and performing responsibilities.
- Establish and maintain effective working relationships with co-workers, program participants, and appropriate community partners.
- Coordinate and manage 4-H clubs, youth programs, events, and activities in cooperation with the 4-H Youth Development Agent, other 4-H Program Managers, local 4-H Council, volunteers, and the 4-H Youth Development Program Committee.
- Recruit and promote 4-H club membership and participation and maintain and organize supplies and resources for volunteers and 4-H members.
- Recruit, enroll, screen, provide orientation, support, and train local volunteers to serve as chaperones, leaders, teachers, and event managers. Act as the primary contact for local program volunteers.
- Utilize the local 4-H Council and 4-H volunteers to design, develop, coordinate, and evaluate 4-H events and activities to meet local needs.
- Serve as a liaison between the Frontier District and the county fair board to collaboratively implement 4-H events and activities in alignment with the local county fair and Kansas 4-H Policy.
- Advise and facilitate the overall functioning of the local 4-H Council.
- Manage and ensure availability of 4-H enrollment systems and databases. Ensure accuracy and use of the local 4-H data and evaluation systems.
- Assist in the management of financial and in-kind resources including collecting and recording fees, keeping financial records, and preparing reports as directed. Manage the financial accountability of local 4-H organizations and clubs.
- Provide an equal opportunity for each youth participant, including upholding Kansas 4-H Policy and regulations.
- Encourage and support youth participation in local, county, district, regional, state, national and international opportunities. Represent the Frontier District as an event chaperone as assigned.
- Keep sensitive information in a confidential manner. Process and distribute sensitive and public information with respect to K-State Research and Extension’s workplace ethical considerations in a professional manner.
- Other duties to support the education and outreach of K-State Research and Extension and the Frontier District.

K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider and employer.
