Housing and Care:

Exhibitors of Franklin County Fair are responsible for the proper care of their animal(s) by following acceptable methods of good animal husbandry. A healthy animal requires sufficient food, water, shelter, and appropriate health care. Youth are expected to provide the primary care and training for livestock projects for the duration of the project. Primary care is defined as the exhibitor making the decisions for and providing the care, handling, and training of their livestock project a majority of the time.

Please check the box for each species you will be nominating*

Pure Bred Papers MUST be in the 4-H Members name by May 1. Due to the office by June 15th (not family name or farm)*

Section 1: Declaration:

I attest that this family has sole ownership, shown and cared for my livestock project(s) since the specified date listed by specie. I hereby certify that I have read the above information and will comply with these rules. I understand that false information provided concerning this declaration will result in exhibitors and/or animals being ineligible for the Franklin County Fair, as determined by show management (Extention, Superintendents, Fairboard). Exhibitors are expected to fully cooperate with show representatives, including making themselves and/or a parent/guardian and animals available upon request.

Section 2: EID Tag Numbers:

By recording the species and its corresponding tag number, I acknowledge that my family has ownership of these animals. I also understand that this information is required for proper identification and record-keeping purposes. Please list the five-digit number on for the corresponding specie*
