

Generation to Generation Estate Planning Series

Franklin County Annex, 1418 South Main, Ottawa
7:00-9:00 pm.

November 7th

Generational Differences - Rebecca McFarland, Frontier District Director

Starting the Family Talking - Ashlee Westerhold - Director, The Office of Farm and Ranch Transition, Kansas State University

November 30th

Picking Professionals - Ashlee Westerhold, Director, The Office of Farm and Ranch Transition, Kansas State University

How to Handle Heirs that are away from the Farm or Business - Jeanie Schainost, Attorney at Law

December 5th

Estate Planning - Types of Estate Plans and Tax Implications - Jeanie Schainost, Attorney at Law

WHY ESTATE PLANNING?

Creating an Estate Plan gives you control of your legacy. No matter the size of your estate, having a plan is key to ensuring your heirs inherit the assets you want them to receive.

For questions, please contact Rod Schaub at 785-828-4438 or rschaub@ksu.edu

Registration is due November 4th. Register with the QR Code, by visiting www.frontierdistrict.ksu.edu, or by calling 785-828-4438