

Plans are being made for the 4th Annual East Central Kansas “Active Aging Expo” to be held on Thursday, May 2nd in Ottawa, Kansas! The Active Aging Expo is a six county regional event planned by professionals from K- State Research and Extension, East Central Kansas Area Agency on Aging and Angels Care Home Health. It encourages older Kansans to be proactive toward their physical, mental and financial health.

The Active Aging Expo is planned and organized to:

- reach older adults, families and caregivers;
- provide education on aging topics for residents in the area;
- collaborate and create awareness of resources and agencies which are available to help.

Collaborating counties include: Osage, Coffey, Franklin, Anderson, Miami, and Linn

If you are interested in being a vendor:

Vendor booths will be busy during scheduled breaks and between sessions, but during conference sessions you will have down time. You are welcome to attend conference sessions at no additional charge. If you would like to attend sessions, please indicate below and we will email you session options once they are finalized. This will ensure that we have rooms large enough to accommodate each session.

___ I and/or my staff would like to attend conference sessions.

___ I and/or my staff will NOT be attending conference sessions.
