Eastern Kansas Grazing School
A two-day workshop on Management Intensive Grazing (MiG) for beginning and experienced graziers.

April 27-28, 2022
Princeton Community Building
1449 US-59
Princeton, KS 66078

Day 1

8:00 a.m. Registration
8:30 a.m. Welcome – Rod Schaub
8:45 a.m. Art & Science of Grazing - Doug Spencer
9:15 a.m. Plant and Soil Basics – Bruno Pedreira
10:00 a.m. Grazing Arithmetic – Doug Spencer
12:00 p.m. Resource Inventory and Stocking Rate – All Presenters
12:30 p.m. Lunch
1:00 p.m. Forages that fill your production gaps – Jaymelynn Farney
2:00 p.m. Matching Animal Needs to Available Forages – Jaymelynn Farney
3:00 p.m. Interseeding Legumes – Bruno Pedreira
3:30 p.m. Strategies to maintain a Productive Pasture – Bruno Pedreira

Day 2

8:00 a.m. Electric Fence – Rod Schaub
9:00 a.m. Watering System – Will Boyer
10:00 a.m. Pasture Allocation Exercise - NRCS
11:00 a.m. Low Stress Cattle Facilities – AJ Tarpoff
12:00 p.m. Lunch
1:00 p.m. MIG Paddock Layout and Design – Doug Spencer
2:00 p.m. Brush Control – Walt
3:00 p.m. Questions and Answers – All Presenters

The Grazing School is targeted at adult learners. The maximum limit is 35 farms, and is on a first-registered basis. Registration is $50 for the first person from a farm, which includes lunches, snacks, and handouts. Additional persons from the same farm are $25, which includes lunches and snacks. Please make checks payable to: Frontier Extension District. Tear off this bottom portion and return with payment by April 8th. Questions may be directed to Rod Schaub, Lyndon Extension Office at 785-828-4438, or rschaub@ksu.edu.